

Biography – Tom Perry

Tom Perry has been with the Trinidad Community Foundation for three years. His role is to serve the board and advance the mission of TCF. Tom has received many awards and recognitions for his role within the communities in which he has resided. They include: Appreciation Awards from Colorado Division of Wildlife, Rocky Mountain Elk Foundation, River Watch Colorado and North American Fire Learning Network. He also received a Conservation Award from Raptor Education Foundation and a Recognition Award from The Nature Conservancy. Tom was granted the Annual Civic Award from Trinidad/Las Animas County Hispanic Chamber of Commerce. He also serves on the Management Advisory Committee for the Bosque Del Oso, State Wildlife Area. Tom Perry has managed the Bar N-I Ranch in Stonewall, Colorado for 15 years now along with his wife, Linda. He is Executive Director of the Bar N-I Ranch and Purgatory Valley Foundation. Tom has also owned and operated many clothing stores throughout Colorado. He served as President of Culebra Range Community Coalition. Mr. Tom Perry has a B.A. in Psychology and Business Administration from the University of St. Thomas, St. Paul, Minnesota.